

Meet the clown

The therapeutic care of the clown aims to uplift the moods and spirits of Sødisebakke residents through the positive power of hope and humor.

The therapeutic effects of humor and laughter help combat stress, alleviate pain by releasing endorphins, and enhance the immune system by increasing T cell levels and reducing serum cortisol levels.

