

GT song by CASI

This song written by CASI includes security, connectedness, meaningfulness and involvement. We hope that everyone will participate in singing together at the conference.

Singing together is more than just singing – it creates a sense of community across work roles and functions. By singing together, you form a bond with one another. Singing can reduce stress and enhance the feeling of cohesion.

